Dear Mr. White:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be denied.

You should understand that BSA membership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to refuse registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not meet the high standards of membership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed by a BSA regional review committee, please write to the regional director within 60 days of the date of this letter, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA member should be reinstated. The procedures for a review of this decision are attached.

Sincerely yours,

JB/lk

Dear Mr. Bopp:

This is to confirm our telephone conversation regarding Mr. Russell White's application to renew his service as an adult boy scout leader. As Mr. White indicated on his application, he was convicted of gross sexual imposition earlier this year. The event in question occurred while he was teaching at the [REDACTED] Middle School. He became involved with one of his female students. The incident only involved "touching" and the student was not only a willing participant, but the one who initiated the relationship. Russ recognizes that the whole affair was a case of extremely bad judgement on his part.

Russ has been convicted and punished for the offense, and, I feel, the whole matter is over and done. I have been Russ White's minister for 16 years. I have worked and counselled with him from the day the charges were leveled against him. Throughout it all, Russ has admitted his responsibility, and has, I believe, faced the problem and dealt with it in a very positive way.

Both Russ and his wife have, at my suggestion, undergone psychiatric counselling. He is repentant and seeks now to rebuild his shattered life. In spite of all that has happened, I have the greatest respect for Russell White. I feel the affair was an isolated incident and will never be repeated again.

We continue to use Russ in our Christian Education program here at the church, and we do so without reservation. The only condition we place on his service is the condition set forth by the terms of his probation - namely that he not be with teen aged girls in an unsupervised setting.

I feel that Russ is a man of great talent and ability. He has made a mistake, but I do not feel that that isolated mistake should preclude his rendering vital service to groups such as yours. I commend him to you.

Sincerely,

O. Frank Storch, III.
